THE CONTRIBUTION OF ISLAMIC TARIQAHS ON “NATIONAL DEFENCE OF KOSOVO” COMMITTEE

Committee “National Defense of Kosovo” was a political organization whose main purpose was to establish independent Albania without any protectorate, save Kosovo and unite it with Albania. Alongside the founders and leaders of the organization, the members of the Islamic orders were engaged during the period of its existence.

Famous scholars took upon writing for the role of these historical figures in the national liberation movement during 1918-1924. They have dealt with different perspectives regarding the duration of the activity of the “NDK” Committee, identifying features of the movement through some of its particular segments, determining the dates, evaluation of events and special personalities where the role of the members from the orders stood out.
