

Murat Gecaj

DR. IBRAHIM GASHI, DEDICATED ACTIVIST OF ALBANIANISM

On the fourth anniversary of his death the author writes about their life time friendship. Then he talks about his dedicated work on the field of education, and national culture highlighting some of his publications as a social activist.

We find out that Dr. Ibrahim Gashi was born on August 23rd 1935 in Kruja region where his parents emigrated from Kosova as a result of Serb genocide. He studied at Tirana University and went on to work as teacher at high school. During 1984-1990 he lectured as an outsider at the Faculty of Natural Science at Tirana University.

During his life was associated with Albanian Institute of Islamic Thought and Civilization. He worked as a diplomat on Albanian Embassy in Slovenia during January 1993- September 1996.

He has published eleven books and many scientific paper work until he passed away on May the 9th 2012.