THE CELEBRATION OF THE ALBANIAN SCHOOL IN CAIRO, EGYPT

This is the title of a patriotic and satirical magazine, about the celebration of the Albanian school in Cairo. The document belongs to 1937 and it is about a festive activity organized by the teachers and students of this school, the interpretation of the theater "The most beautiful on Earth", which was attended by many representatives of the albanian community in Cairo. The event was accompanied by music and the interpretation of the Anthem of the albanian national flag. The importance of this document lies in the preservation and heritage of albanian traditions and language among the albanian community in Egypt.
