

ON SOME TYPES OF DISCOURSE IN THE QUR'AN

The Holy Book, the Holy Qur'an, is the word of Allah (swt) which He revealed in a period of 23 years over the last Messenger, Muhammad (pbuh). As such, he has challenged the worlds and every creature. The Qur'an conveys in itself spiritual life, illustration and inspiration, and the human being finds it impossible to explain the secret of this phenomenon. His words prove quite well, that it is impossible to imitate the Qur'an and the style of its narrations is unattainable.

The Qur'an gives the Muslim a complete vision and a clear concise program and makes ones life like walking in a balanced line without having obstacles. This vision also unifies knowledge with faith, causing man that after matter, to be with matter again. Also, this vision connects secrets with sensitive emotions and never lets them be shared. It is already known that if we adhered to the Qur'anic vision and meditated on the signs of God in the creatures, we would have a psychology that would recognize the greatness of the Creator, since He created man.
